

SEA CHALLENGER jack-up vessel for the wind industry

REFERENCES FOR SERVICES

September 2017

CUSTOMER

A2SEA A/S

THE PROJECT

SEA CHALLENGER, jack-up vessel for the wind industry, Seacabin harbor service team has carried out a renovation project with installation of new galley floor – acrylic based floor system – Duracon from Flowcrete. Location Hvide Sande harbor.

WE ASSIST ON SERVICES FOR A2SEA A/S

- Demounting of galley equipment.
- Demolition of existing galley floor.
- Grinding and corrosion – treatment of steel construction.
- Priming of the steal construction.
- Installation of floor system 50-90 mm trickness with slope to drain.
- Duracon acrylic based floor system to resist the movements in the construction.
- Reinstallation off galley equipment.

We were on a very tight schedule, on which our experienced installers managed on-time delivery with a satisfied customer.

CONTACT US

Tlf. +45 30 73 70 29
info@seacabin.dk
www.seacabin.dk